

The Case for Legacy Giving to Jewish Family Services

Supporting community members in need

When individuals and families in our community are in need, Raleigh-Cary Jewish Family Services is ready to guide them from crisis to security, and from isolation to connection. JFS offers compassionate and affordable social services and programs to empower families and individuals of all ages to maximize the quality of their lives and reach their full potential with dignity, hope, and strength. Stemming from fundamental Jewish values such as tikkun olam (repairing the world), JFS supports families of all backgrounds as they struggle with basic human needs, life transitions, and mental health issues.

Our legacy givers—just like you—want to demonstrate and honor their values by:

- Enabling JFS to respond to changing social and economic demands that challenge our community with innovative programs to meet the community's needs
- Ensuring that community members in need and facing crisis will always be able to turn to JFS for support and guidance
- Standing up to be counted as part of our community's collective effort to create a more just world for future generations

Through the Jewish Community Foundation, an arm of the Federation, you can fulfill your philanthropic vision alongside many other generous community members who have invested in our future. Your commitment can represent a transformational opportunity for our community... It is in your hands to write your own Jewish story, making your mark on Jewish history through acts of compassion and care.
